CME/CEU Module

Managing Continuing Education has never been more difficult than it is today. With tighter regulations and new restrictions put in place by accrediting bodies, awarding Continuing Education Credits has become extremely time consuming. What is acceptable for one accrediting body may not be acceptable for another. Therefore, you need a solution that is both reliable and flexible to accommodate the different requirements. AI's CME/CEU Module gives you the flexibility your need!

Whether you are looking for flexibility in how credits are tracked or if you are looking for a better way to issue certificates, AI's CME/CEU offers you the best of both worlds. Our staff will work with you to determine how to best track your credits and will assist you in setting up the software to handle the inputting of credits. Whether you work on an honor system, require codes or wish to scan attendees in and out of sessions, AI has a solution.

When it comes to issuing of certificates, no other products offers you greater adaptability. You can issue different certificates to attendees based on their role or association with your conference or a specific accrediting body. The system is capable of handling multiple certificate templates to accommodate your needs.
